Sir,-The Permanent Committee have your letter No. 1146 of the 3rd July in reply to their communication of the previous day on the subject of the removal of the sok to the Chinese plague hospital at Lai-chi-kok. The Committee apologies for the delay in answering this letter, but it was only received by the Chairman between 5 and close of the meeting of the Committee on that day. It only came up, therefore, for consideration at their meeting on the 4th instant, when it was fully discussed, and instructions were given for the preparation of a reply; and the drafting of that reply has been delayed by the fact that the Chairman has been engaged in the Supreme Court in an important case for the last two

SPORTING NOTES.

A good many of us remember the words of Punch's dying bookmaker, who, being linterviewed by a clergyman, asked the question, When I die if I am an angel in Heaven shall I have wings? Yes, certainly,' said the holy man. 'And o'clock in the evening of the 3rd, after the when you die and go to Heaven shall you have wings? 'queried the sick sport 'I trust ; I shall go to Heaven when I die, and in that case I shall be an angel and have wings,' was the reply. 'Then,' said the dying man, whose voice was getting weaker every moment, 'the first time we meet I'll fly you for a "fiver."' It is evident to me that there is a good deal of the dying sport's spirit still existing in this unfortunate Colony, otherwise the Gymkhana of to-morrow would not, as it now does, bid fair

PUBLISHED BI-MONTHLY. THIS Review, which was intended to meet the wants of many students of Chinese caused by the discontinuance of Notes and caused by the discontinuance of 'Notes and Queries on China and Japan,' has reached its Twenty-first Volume. The Review discusses those topics which are uppermost in the minds of students of the 'Far East' and about which every intelligent person connected with China or Japan is desirous of acquiring trustworthy information. It includes many interesting Notes and original Papers on the Arts, Sciences, Ethnology, Folklore, Geography, History, Literature, Mythology, Natural History, Antiquities, and Social Manners and Customs, etc., etc., of China, Japan, Mongolia, Tibet, and the Far East generally. Recently a new departure has been taken, and the Review now gives papers on Trade, Commerce, and Descriptive notes of Travel by well-known Descriptive notes of Travel by well-known and the SEINATE of the Descriptive notes of Travel by well-known writers. It was thought that by extending the scope of the Review in this direction, the Magazine would be made more generally Memorial Hospital

The Review department receives special attention, and endeavours are made to present a careful and concise record of Literature on China etc., and to give critiques ombodying sketches of the Most recent works on such topics. Authors and Publishers are requested to forward works to 'Editor, China Review, care of China Mail Office.

The Notes and Queries are still continued and form an important means of obtaining from and diffusing among students knew-ledge on obscure points. The Correspondents' column also affords farther and greater facilities for the interchange of views and discussion of various Original contributions in Chinese, Latin, or any of the Modern Languages are received. The papers are contributed by the members of the various Consular, the Imperial Customs, and Hongkong Services, and also by the Missionary bodies amongst whom a high degree of Chinese scholarship is assiduously cultivated. Amongst the regular contributors are Drs. Chalmers, Eitel, Bretschneider, and Hirth, Professor Legge, and Messrs Balfour, Watters, Stent, Phillips, MacIntyre, Groot, Jamieson, Faber, Kopsch, Parker, Playfair, Giles, Piton, and Taylor,-all well-known names, indicative of sound scholarship and thorough mastery of their subject.

the number. -H.K. Daily Press. Trubner's Oriental Record contains th following notice of the China Review: The present publication, judging by the number now before us, is intended to occupy a position, as regards China and the neighbouring countries, some what simila to that which has been filled in India by the Calcutta Review. The great degree of at tention that has been bestowed of late year upon the investigation of Chinese literature antiquities, and social developments, to sa nothing of linguistic studies, has led to the accumulation of important stores of inform ation, rendering some such channel of pub licity as is now provided extremely desir able ; and contributions of much interes may fairly be looked or from the member of the foreign consular services, the Chines Customs' corps, and the missiomary body among whom a high degree of Chines scholarship is now assiduously oultivated and who are severally represented in the fir number of the Review by papers high creditable to their respective authors.

Bome translations from Chinese novels an plays are marked by both accuracy and freal ness of style; and an account of the career the Chinese poet-statesman of the elevent century, Su Tung-p'o, by Mr. E. C. Bowrs is not only historically valuable, but is also distinguished by its literary grace. Beside notices of new books relating to China and the East, which will be a useful feature of the Review, if carried out with punctuali and detail, we are glad to notice the 'Notes' and 'Queries' are destined t find a place in its pages also. It is to hoped that this opening for contribution on Chinese subjects may evoke a similar degree of literary real to that which w displayed during the lifetime of its predemay receive the support necessary to insure its continuance.
